We have received your letter dated December 5, 2008 concerning the above-mentioned case. Unfortunately, we cannot give legal advice, and the Court cannot take action or grant relief in response to letters. If you desire to seek relief from the Court, you must serve and file an appropriate pleading in accordance with the applicable Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and the local rules of this Court. Further, by copy of this letter, we are referring your letter to Judge James M. Peck, the judge who has been assigned this case.

Very truly yours,
